

Resolution

Designating Murray J. Haberman Executive Director Emeritus California Postsecondary Education Commission

Whereas, Murray J. Haberman has served the state of California for more than 34 years, the final five years as Executive Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, and

Whereas, most of the years of Murray Haberman's professional career were spent in the service of advancing postsecondary education in California, and

Whereas, Murray Haberman retired in good standing from the Commission and can certainly be counted on in the future to be a voice for addressing the challenges facing postsecondary education in California, and

Whereas, it is common in postsecondary circles to confer upon a retiring professor the title of "Emeritus," and

Whereas, the honorary term "Executive Director Emeritus" will confer on Murray J. Haberman the respect of his colleagues and will grant him the right to speak out on important postsecondary issues,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that Murray J. Haberman is conferred with the title of Executive Director Emeritus of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, and

Be it further resolved that the Commission warmly thanks Murray J. Haberman for his service, including his continuation beyond his official retirement date to assist the Commission during its search for a new Executive Director, and wishes him all the best as he enters retirement.

Adopted this day, Tuesday, March 10, 2009 at Sacramento, CA.
